Program Details

Provides financial assistance for rent and mortgage, utility assistance and home repair program through their Aid & Assistance program. The Aid & Assistance program provides emergency financial assistance, case management and referral assistance to qualified residents of Harris County in need. Emergency Financial Assistance provides to the client or on the client's behalf financial assistance for emergencies such as: utility termination notice, vacate/eviction/foreclosure notice, or emergency nutrition or shelter need. Case management is available to clients who are unemployed due to a recent disability. Funding sources include FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency), which assists clients with one-time assistance with each of the following delinquent bills: electricity, gas, and water. Aid & Assistance also provides: Referral Assistance - clients with needs beyond the scope and resources of the Aid & Assistance program are linked to other service providers who can address additional needs.
