Program Details
Cleaning for a Reason Foundation (C4R) Partners with local professional cleaning services nationwide to provide free professional housecleaning services to improve the lives of women, men and children undergoing treatment for cancer. C4R provides services in the United States and Canada. Maid services take on two patients at a time, each of whom receives one general house cleaning per month for 2 consecutive months. However, they can't always guarantee there will be an available maid service in all areas. Once patient is matched, they will be asked to provide C4R a note from physician confirming they are in treatment. Upon receipt of that note, patient will be notified by the maid service to schedule the first cleaning. Partners may speak other languages in addition to English, depending in part on region of country. C4R partners with professional residential maid services who are insured or insured or bonded and perform background checks on their employees. Application can be submitted on their website at http://portal.cleaningforareason.org/patients/account/register PLEASE NOTE: Some areas may have a long waiting list or the list may be so long they are no longer adding to the list.
