Program Details

Susan G. Komen for the Cure is an international nonprofit organization dedicated to saving lives and ending breast cancer by empowering people, ensuring quality care for all, and energizing science to find the cures. Susan G. Komen addresses breast cancer in a variety of ways such as research, community health, global outreach and public policy initiatives. Resources include, but are not limited to: - Educational materials for patients, co-survivors (friends and family members), and health educators, many of which are designed for special populations such as younger women and minorities. - Komen Treatment Assistance Program: Eligible applicants may receive a $300 award once per 12-month period to help with breast cancer treatment expenses such as rent/housing, utilities/bills, side-effect management medication (e.g. pain, anti-nausea, etc.), child care/elder care, oral treatment medication (e.g. chemotherapy, hormone therapy, etc.), transportation to and from treatment, durable medical equipment (e.g. oxygen tank, walker, etc.), lymphedema care and supplies, food or groceries, palliative care, or home health care - Referrals to Komen Affiliates that may offer breast cancer support groups, community health programs, emergency financial assistance, funding for clinical breast exams, diagnostic tests and mammograms.
